

Technical Meeting on Managing Corporate Risk in Asia

Co-organisers:

- Hong Kong Association of Risk Management and Safety \(HKARMS\)
- Hong Kong Institute of Utility Specialists \(HKIUS\)

Date & Time: 17 June 2009 (Wed), 7:00 - 8:30 pm

Venue: HJ305, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University

The seminar will address the practical political and business risks of doing business in Asia. The presentation offers insight into the problems of corruption and fraud and the need for effective off-balance sheet due diligence. Other factors which can have an impact on the current political and economic situation will be covered, as well as the evolving threat of terrorism and how this can impact businesses operating in the region.

Speaker: Steve Vickers, President & CEO, International Risk Limited

As President and Chief Executive Officer of International Risk Steve is responsible for the strategic direction and operations of International Risk. Steve set up the company in the year 2000 on behalf of an international accounting firm and subsequently led a management buy-out (MBO) of the firm. In July 2006 International Risk became part of New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) listed FTI Consulting Inc.

During the past 18 years, he has conducted numerous sensitive business intelligence projects, major financial investigations, international asset searches and risk management assessments. He has also led a number of crisis management teams faced with financial or other significant threats to multi-national corporations. Steve previously spent 18 years in the Royal Hong Kong Police Force and commanded the Force's Criminal Intelligence Bureau, retiring in the rank of Senior Superintendent of Police.
